MEMORANDUM FOR: Legislative Counsel

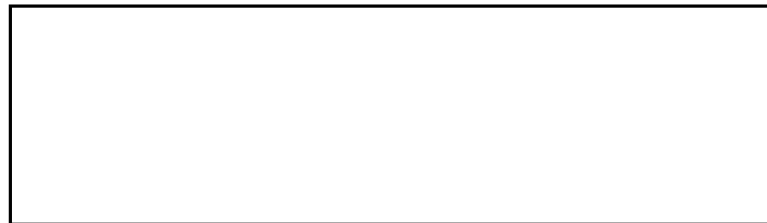

SUBJECT: Department of Defense bill "To amend present provisions of law concerning benefits available to certain civilian personnel for injury, death, or detention resulting from war risk hazards, and for other purposes."

REFERENCES:

- a. Memorandum from the Legislative Counsel to DD/P-Admin, dated 15 December 1954, same subject
- b. Memorandum from the Assistant Director for Personnel to the Legislative Counsel, dated 3 December 1954, same subject

1. A review of subject bill indicates definite security problems for this Agency if this legislation is enacted in its present form.

2. The attached memorandum and comparative study on this subject from the AD/P to your office reflects the major problems that we feel are inherent in this proposed bill, and with one exception we would like to concur in the recommendations listed in paragraph 4 of this memorandum. In b(2) of this paragraph we do not feel that the CIA should be specifically named but that it should be included as a sensitive Agency.

Chief of Administration, DD/P
